The Mommy Journal - Tracy Broy 2002-09-02

Ask any mother and she will tell you there are just not enough hours in the day. By the time she has fed, clothed, and bathed the children, read Curious George for the 100th time, cut the crusts off the PB&J sandwiches, and removed the ground-in dirt from the play clothes, she does not have time to create a detailed scrapbook of each of her children's lives. It's no wonder that so many elaborate baby books remain incomplete, their pristine pages adding to the guilt and inadequacy that many moms already feel. That is why The Mommy Journal is so perfect for today's moms. It offers a quick and guilt-free way to record the special moments of childhood. Space for each entry is only about three inches long and undated, so there is no pressure to write lengthy narratives or to journal every day. In less than five minutes, mothers can quickly jot down the moments they want to remember forever. Plus, unlike traditional baby books, The Mommy Journal lets mothers record memories of all their children in one place. Charming illustrations of toys, hearts, and animals grace each page. Every few pages contain a bit of parenting wisdom such as, "The best thing you can give children next to good habits are good memories." Instructions for fun activities moms can do with their children, such as make edible finger paint from instant pudding, are included as well. The Mommy Journal will become a treasured keepsake, both for the mom who creates it and for the child who receives this precious record of childhood.

Art Smith - Rachel Sherwood Roberts 2003-07-16

By 1915, pioneer aviator Art Smith was as celebrated as any movie star might be today. He thrilled audiences with his barnstorming feats, doing "death spirals," sky writing, "loop-the-loops," and night flights using phosphorus fireworks. He was a consummate showman and had he not died in 1926, his name probably would be familiar to most Americans. He glamorized and popularized aviation while testing the boundaries of aeronautical principles. As a boy he longed to fly before he had ever seen an airplane. His parents believed in him, and he was fortunate to have a best friend named Al Wertman who helped him build an airplane. His fame spread around the globe and in 1916, the Japanese offered him $10,000 for a series of exhibitions. His flying skills inspired a young Wiley Post to a life of aviation. After Smith's death, when Lindbergh flew over Fort Wayne and dipped his wings, he gave credit to the "Bird Boy" Art Smith. The story of this rising star in American aviation is one of adventure, romance, scandal and history. Using Smith's own autobiographical writings, the story is also a factual account of events in early aviation. The book includes photographs and postcards in Art Smith's own handwriting mailed to Al Wertman.

This journal, which is completed by mother and son, makes a great gift for your son or for a mom! The answers recorded will live on in time and make a wonderful keepsake for mother and son in years to come. PERFECT GIFT for mom and son - This 6" X 9" journal is the perfect opportunity to take turns recording an answer to the questions listed in the book. By answering the questions and prompts included in this journal, a mother and son can leave a lasting legacy recorded in their own handwriting. This journal serves to provide both thought-provoking and easy and fun questions that feel safe to open up the lines of communication between a mother and her son. Don't feel obligated to answer all the questions at once. Take your time and enjoy the journey. This journal makes a great Christmas, birthday, Valentine's, or Mother's Day gift! GUIDED QUESTIONS - This mother and son journal allows both to get to know one another better, especially at a time when a boy may not be as open and conversational with his mom. Best suited for ages 12 - 17 years old. For example, here's a small sample of fun and/or thought-provoking questions included in this journal: Son, what is the hardest thing about being a kid? Mom, what was the hardest thing about being a kid? Son, if you could have one superpower, what would it be? Mom, if you could have one superpower, what would it be? Son, are you excited or fearful about going to college or university? Son, what hurts your feelings? Mom, what hurts your feelings? PERSONALIZED AND INTERACTIVE - The lined pages provide you with room to write your answers to the guided questions. There are also a few pages near the back of the book that you can personalize with your own questions. If you want, you can even paste a few photos in the book, or add whatever you want. The handsome cover comes in a glossy finish. HIGH-QUALITY - There are 120 pages (60 sheets) in this journal. The pages are made with high-quality white paper that provides good absorbency so you can feel confident using pens or gel pens without bleed-through. Make the decision for mom and son to record their answers in a way that allows them to connect in a safe and fun way.
